Interview: Interviewed Mrs. Mangum on the job where she is a secretary in Judge Richberg's court located on the second floor of the Oak Cliff Court Building.

Advised she has never worked in the TSBD - never been inside for that matter. She was working her present job about one year in November, 1963 and she and others went to Cedar Springs Road on the 22nd to see the motorcade pass that segment of the publicized JFK route.

Having viewed the President driving by, they were in the process of returning to work via the Stemmons Freeway when they were surprised to see what looked like the President's limousine pass their car. They understood a short time later when they turned the car radio on.

This is the extent of her knowledge, first hand or otherwise at that time.

In response to my question, she has never met "Lonnie Hudkins", but produced a letter she received some time ago from another person she hadn't heard of - a Harold Weisburg. Has no idea who "Mary" might be. Copy of Weisberg letter dated 8-20-77 will be attached to typed interview.

Eddie Raymond Walthers was her husband's correct name, but "Buddy" had been a consistent nickname.

She knew of Ralph Walters. He worked in the Dallas Sheriff's office with "Buddy" until the latter was shot to death while attempting to capture an escapee in a Dallas hotel several years ago.

She'll check for any old material at home. Did not reply to Weisberg's letter.
